

Criteria 7: Specific facilities provided for women

Glow -W Talks' International Women's Day 2021 concludes at ZIMCA in the presence of International women.

As every year, International Women's Day was celebrated in our institute. In this year there is participation of six international women from two continents. Tamar Lolishvili, Director, Global Peace Institute, Georgia, Toshiko Tsuchiya, Automotive Industry, Japan, Dr. Shama Hussain, Entrepreneur and Educationist, President, National Institute of Skill Training, Oman, Dr. Gul Erkol Bayram Associate Professor, School SINOP University Turkey, Rania Lampou, Global Educator, Greek, Dr. Zeliha Salmoglu, HOD, Nigid Moer Halisdemir University, Medicine Faculty, Medical Biology Dept. Turkey women from different countries participated in the event through YouTube.

The program began with the national anthem. The program was inaugurated with the lighting of lamps and worship of Saraswati. Information about Zeal Education Society and International Women's Day was given by Dr. Ashwini Sovani, Head, Management Program.

Tamar Lolisville, Georgia, guides conflict management and critical thinking and how to overcome it. It discusses the skills needed in the 21st century and how critical thinking can be used to overcome conflict.

Toshiko Tsuchiya, Japan, recounted various experiences in the industrial sector during her life as a woman. He also gave guidance on the importance of communication and how to negotiate with customers.

In her speech, Dr. Shama Hussain, Oman, said that International Women's Day is a day of empowerment of women. The actual competent person is not the one who gets 90% or more marks in the exam only, but the person who can make some changes in society is the natural competent person. It is essential to include ethics, values, attitudes, etc., in education. Both EQ and IQ are necessary for success in life. So emotional intelligence is also critical. He said that no matter how adverse the external situation may be, one should face it confidently and calmly. Education is a part of our lives, not the whole life. Happiness is the essence of life.

Dr. Gul Erkol Bayram, Turkey, described her life experiences, successes, and how she dealt with life's challenges as a woman. He also talked about how he enabled his students.
