4. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Zeal Social Responsibility Club of Zeal Institute of Management and Computer Application inculcates various social works along with academic activities to strengthen the sense of belongingness amongst students by arranging different activities throughout the academic year. Blood transfusion services (BTS) have the responsibility to collect blood only from donors who are at low risk for any infection that could be transmitted through transfusion and who are unlikely to jeopardize their own health by blood donation. A rigorous process to assess the suitability of prospective donors is therefore essential to protect the safety and sufficiency of the blood supply, and safeguard the health of recipients of transfusion and blood donors themselves, while ensuring that suitable donors are not deferred unnecessarily.
